SPONSOR & EXHIBITOR Prospectus

The Emerging Trends in Wellness Conference is about fostering healthy behavior change in the workplace, but it doesn't stop there. This year's event will provide top-notch education by industry leaders who will share their vision and insight about corporate wellness, employee engagement, and health promotion – topics that have become even more important during the pandemic. Now in its ninth year, the event is a great opportunity for your organization to connect with key decision-makers in human resources and employee benefits, as well as individuals in the wellness, nutrition, health promotion, and employee safety fields. The virtual conference is expected to draw 250+ attendees and will provide you with the opportunity to:

- Gain access to key decision-makers and develop new relationships
- Deliver your unique message and showcase your organization's expertise to a highly targeted audience
- Set your organization apart from the competition with customized branding opportunities
