

Joel Allumbaugh

Joel Allumbaugh is President and CEO of National Worksite Benefit Group (NWBG), Inc., dba The Allumbaugh Agency. He founded NWBG in 2004, a full-service employee benefits insurance agency specializing in patient-centered health plan strategies. Joel is a Visiting Senior Fellow at the Foundation for Government Accountability and is past Director of the Center for Health Reform Initiatives and the Maine Association of Health Underwriters. He hosted Inside Maine Healthcare, a television program aired on the Time Warner Cable network from 2010 to 2012.

Joel has been published and cited in many state and national media outlets. His research and articles have been published with The Heritage Foundation, Health Affairs and Forbes. He has been appointed to multiple state committees and boards and currently serves on the Board of the Maine Guarantee Access Reinsurance Association and the Maine Health Data Organization.

Appointments

2011: Appointed by Governor LePage to the Advisory Committee on Maine's Health Insurance Exchange

2011 & 2016: Appointed by Governor LePage and confirmed by the Maine Legislature to the Maine Governmental Facilities Authority

2011, 2014, 2016: Appointed by Maine Superintendent of Insurance, Eric Cioppa, to the Maine Guarantee Access Reinsurance Association

2015: Appointed by Governor LePage to the Board of the Maine Health Data Organization

2017: Appointed by the President of the Senate to the Task Force on Health Care Coverage for All of Maine